Tentative Rulings are proposed as orders to be issued at the hearing and are posted in advance for the convenience of the parties and their counsel. Each matter on calendar will be called and parties are expected to attend. For those matters where the parties are not ordered to appear and either the parties agree or no objection is made at the hearing, the Court routinely adopts the tentative ruling as the ruling in the matter.

For privacy purposes on the publicly posted version of this document the parties' last names have been replaced by keeping only the first letter followed by three x's (example, John Doe = John Dxxx).

EVENT: PETITIONER'S REQ FOR ORDER

ACTION: DISSOLUTION

EVENT NOTES: PETITIONER'S REQUEST FOR ORDER RE: RECONSIDERATION OF 10/7/2019 ORDERS

Tentative Ruling:

The court shall hear from the parties at the time of hearing.

Petitioner's motion filed December 30, 2019 seeks reconsideration of the court's orders made October 7, 2019, notice of which was served by mail on October 21, 2019. To the extent the moving party seeks reconsideration, the court's tentative ruling is to deny the motion. Reconsideration is governed by Code of Civil Procedure section 1008. The instant request for reconsideration is untimely and the court is without jurisdiction to consider it. To the extent the orders regarding additional non-taxable income to Respondent were made without prejudice, this is not reflected in the court file.

To the extent the request may seek modification of child support and spousal support, it does not appear the moving party has met the initial burden of showing changed circumstances since the last support order. The court shall determine at the time of hearing whether the moving party has met his initial burden of showing changed circumstances since the last support order.
