Tentative Rulings are proposed as orders to be issued at the hearing and are posted in advance for the convenience of the parties and their counsel. Each matter on calendar will be called and parties are expected to attend. For those matters where the parties are not ordered to appear and either the parties agree or no objection is made at the hearing, the Court routinely adopts the tentative ruling as the ruling in the matter.

For privacy purposes on the publicly posted version of this document the parties' last names have been replaced by keeping only the first letter followed by three x's (example, John Doe = John Dxxx).

Respondent filed a motion for modification of child support on 10/9/2020. Current support orders entered on 12/16/2019 set child support at $865 per month, payable by Respondent/Father.

Petitioner was ordered to file a Response and an Income and Expense Declaration ("I&E" or FL-150) with proof of income attached. Petitioner was ordered to provide documentation of income from March 2020 to present. If self-employment income is reported, Petitioner must submit monthly P&L statements, prior year tax returns, and any other proof of income. Petitioner filed a Response but has not filed her I&E. Respondent was ordered to file an updated I&E with information attached documenting any unemployment benefits received. Respondent filed an updated I&E but no supporting documentation as ordered.

There is no tentative ruling. Neither party has complied with the court orders. The court shall hear from the parties at the time of hearing.
