Tentative Rulings are proposed as orders to be issued at the hearing and are posted in advance for the convenience of the parties and their counsel. Each matter on calendar will be called and parties are expected to attend. For those matters where the parties are not ordered to appear and either the parties agree or no objection is made at the hearing, the Court routinely adopts the tentative ruling as the ruling in the matter.

For privacy purposes on the publicly posted version of this document the parties' last names have been replaced by keeping only the first letter followed by three x's (example, John Doe = John Dxxx).

The Agency filed a motion for modification of child support on May 21, 2020 at the request of Other Parent. Current support orders entered on 10/31/2011 set child support at $500 per month, payable by Respondent (Father). The moving party has the burden of showing changed circumstances since the last support order. There is a change of Respondent's income alleged and the initial burden is met.

Modified Guideline child support shall be calculated at the time of hearing. The parties shall file with the court and serve on all parties updated income and expense declarations (form FL-150) with pay stubs from March 1, 2020 to present attached. The income and expense declarations filed May 21, 2020 do not have supporting pay documents attached.

The Agency filed a motion for modification of child support on May 21, 2020. Current support orders of 3/24/2017 set support at the Guideline amount of $-0- per month, payable by Respondent. The moving party has the burden of showing changed circumstances since the last support order. There is a change of income noted for Respondent; Respondent's income at the entry of judgment was $-0- and income is now reported. The moving party has met the initial burden on the motion.

Absent objection and contrary evidence by the parties presented at the time of hearing, the court intends to grant the modification as outlined in the Agency pleading. Absent objection and contrary evidence by the parties, Guideline support will be modified to $394 per month, payable by Respondent, effective June1, 2020.

The Court intends to adopt new springing language indicating that language in any prior orders which include administrative relief without further order of the court is no longer applicable.
