Tentative Rulings are proposed as orders to be issued at the hearing and are posted in advance for the convenience of the parties and their counsel. Each matter on calendar will be called and parties are expected to attend. For those matters where the parties are not ordered to appear and either the parties agree or no objection is made at the hearing, the Court routinely adopts the tentative ruling as the ruling in the matter.

For privacy purposes on the publicly posted version of this document the parties' last names have been replaced by keeping only the first letter followed by three x's (example, John Doe = John Dxxx).

The Agency filed a motion for modification of child support on September 9, 2021 at Respondent's request. Current support orders of 3/9/2015 set Guideline support at $544 per month, payable by Respondent/Father. There is an alleged change of circumstances, a decrease in Respondent's income, which may impact child support.

There is no tentative ruling. The court shall hear from the parties at the time of hearing. Parties shall submit updated income and expense declarations (FL-150) with pay stubs and/or supporting documentation attached prior to hearing if they wish to have this information considered by the court. The court identifies Respondent's income and expense declaration filed September 7, 2021 and notes Respondent indicates he has no expenses, no debts, and minimal income from his self-employment.
