Tentative Rulings are proposed as orders to be issued at the hearing and are posted in advance for the convenience of the parties and their counsel. Each matter on calendar will be called and parties are expected to attend. For those matters where the parties are not ordered to appear and either the parties agree or no objection is made at the hearing, the Court routinely adopts the tentative ruling as the ruling in the matter.

For privacy purposes on the publicly posted version of this document the parties' last names have been replaced by keeping only the first letter followed by three x's (example, John Doe = John Dxxx).

The court intends to grant the Agency request to enter Judgment, as follows:

Guideline support for the minor child will be determined at the time of hearing. The court has received and reviewed the parents' income and expense declarations (form FL-150 or "I&E") and supporting pay stubs. If income has changed since the filing of the I&Es, the parties are ordered to file updated documents or bring the same to court.

The court shall order the parties to provide health insurance for the minor children if such insurance is available through an employer or otherwise at a reasonable cost.

Each party shall pay one-half of uncovered health care costs for the dependent children to the other parent as per Family Code § 4062.

The Other Parent will be added as a party to the case.

The Agency filed a motion for modification of child support on September 9, 2020 at Other Parent's request. Current support orders entered on 2/2/2006 set child support at $254 per month for minor child Samantha, payable by Respondent. The moving party has the burden of showing changed circumstances since the last support order. There is a change of Respondent's income alleged and the initial burden is met.

Respondent also alleges a change of custody between 2014 and 2020 for which equitable credit is sought.

The court shall hear from the parties at the time of hearing and calculate Guideline support at that time.
