1. By filing a noticed motion.
2. By court order issued upon oral request of a party made in open court at a time when the case is otherwise regularly calendared; or
3. By submission of an Ex Parte Application to set matter on calendar and Proposed Order on the form available on the Court's website,

State of California Superior Court
County of Amador

www.amadorcourt.org. Notice of any Ex Parte Application to set matter on calendar must be provided to the opposing party no less than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the hearing. If twenty-four (24) hours notice is not given, an explanation why proper notice was not provided must be included in the Ex Parte Application. Notice must be provided during regular business hours. Failure to include the required notice, or sufficient cause for failing to do so, may result in the denial of the Application. The twenty-four (24) hour notice provision may be waived by the parties upon written stipulation.

- B. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the date and time of all hearings will be set by the clerk.
- C. All initial moving papers relating to pretrial motions, including those filed after obtaining an order shortening time, shall be filed with the clerk. No matter shall be calendared prior to the filing of the moving papers. Documents submitted for filing which are required to be kept confidential pursuant to statute or court order, must contain the work “CONFIDENTIAL” in bold caps directly beneath the document title and should be filed under seal under the provisions set forth in rule 2.551 of the California Rules of Court.

1. Police Reports Containing Confidential Personal Information

In accordance with Penal Code section 964 and the public policy set forth therein, prosecutors and law enforcement agencies should not submit police reports, arrest reports or investigative reports containing “confidential personal information” (as defined in subd. (b) of Penal Code § 964) of victims or witnesses to the court in support of a criminal complaint, indictment, or information; or in support of a search or arrest warrant. Rather, prosecutors and law enforcement agencies should present the court with written declarations from law enforcement officers that are devoid of this confidential personal information.

In the alternative to providing declarations to the court, the parties may submit copies of police reports, arrest reports or investigative reports that are redacted of all “confidential personal information” of victims and/or witnesses. The redacted copies of these reports provided to the court must be attached to a declaration attesting to the fact that all “confidential personal information” of victims and/or witnesses has been effectively redacted from the reports.

All agencies should bear in mind that the court will not undertake the task of redacting any confidential personal information of victims or witnesses from documents submitted for the court’s consideration. Rather, the burden to ensure that this information is not included within any documents presented falls squarely on the agencies preparing and presenting them to the court. In this respect, the court may exercise its discretion to accept or reject a police, arrest or investigative report containing confidential personal information that is submitted

County of Amador

2. Confidentiality of Pretrial Services Records and Information.

Information supplied by a defendant to a representative of the Amador County Probation Department during the defendant's initial interview or subsequent contacts, or information obtained by the Probation Department as a result of the interview or subsequent contacts, will be deemed confidential and will not be subject to subpoena or to disclosure, and will not subject any employee or agent of the Probation Department to subpoena, with the following exceptions:

- (a) Information relevant to the imposition of conditions of release must be presented to the court, the prosecutor, the defendant, and the defendant's attorney, on a standardized form when the court is considering what conditions of release to impose, and if the information given is false or misleading, it may be used for prosecution or impeachment;
 - (b) Information concerning compliance with any conditions of release imposed by the court must be furnished to the court, the prosecutor, the defendant and the defendant's attorney, for prosecution, impeachment, or for consideration of modification of conditions of release;
 - (c) As otherwise ordered by the court in the interest of justice, upon noticed motion of the party seeking disclosure and a showing of good cause.
- D. Failure to serve and file papers in opposition to a motion, other than an ex parte application, may, in the court's discretion, be deemed a forfeiture of any objections and an admission that the motion or other application is meritorious. The court may also deem, in its discretion, that the party who has failed to timely file written opposition to a noticed motion has forfeited the right to orally oppose the motion at the hearing.
- E. All opposition and reply papers shall be served upon opposing counsel by personal delivery, express mail, federal express, email (when agreed to in writing by the parties), fax, or other means designed to ensure that the opposition and reply papers are received by opposing counsel within twenty-four (24) hours of filing. The motion shall not be heard unless the above-mentioned documents have been served on all parties to the proceeding within the time limits specified. A party shall not be deemed to have been served until that party receives actual notice of the motion; or if the notice of motion is mailed through the U.S. mail, a party shall be deemed to have been served five (5) calendar days after the posting of the notice of motion.

State of California Superior Court
County of Amador

- F. Failure, without good cause, to comply with the requirements of this rule concerning the time for filing and serving initial papers may, in the discretion of the court, be deemed an admission that the motion is without merit. Failure, without good cause, to comply with the requirements of this rule concerning the time for filing and serving opposing and reply papers may, in the discretion of the court, be deemed cause for acting on the matter without consideration of the document filed in violation of the rule.
- G. The above filing rules, paragraphs (A) through (D), do not apply to motions for continuance.

Any pending hearing date shall be set forth clearly in the top right-hand corner of page one of the Income and Expense Declaration form. Note: "Current" means the Income and Expense Declaration has been completed within the past three months providing no facts have changed. (Rule 5.260(a)(3).)

The parties shall complete the portions of the declarations relevant to the issues to be determined at the hearing. If a party is receiving public assistance benefits, that fact shall be disclosed in No. 1 of the Income and Expense Declaration or Financial Statement. The court may impose sanctions as permitted by law if delay results from the failure of either party to comply with these requirements.

The Income and Expense Declarations or Financial Statement shall be deemed to be received in evidence at the hearing, subject to amendment and cross-examination. Examinations on matters covered by the Income and Expense Declarations or Financial Statements will be heard only under exceptional circumstances within the court's discretion and normally will be limited to testimony regarding unusual items not adequately explained in the Income and Expense Declarations or Financial Statements.

If an order shortening time is requested, the supporting affidavit or declaration shall state, pursuant to California Rules of Court, rules 3.1200-3.1207, whether the opposing party is represented by counsel and whether that party has been contacted and has agreed to the requested order shortening time. Reasonable notice, which is presumed to be not less than twenty-four (24) hours, shall be given to the opposing party prior to application. If the opposing party has not been contacted or agreed to the order shortening time, the supporting affidavit or declaration shall demonstrate why the hearing should be set on the proposed date without the consent of the opposing party. As a general rule, an affidavit or declaration in support of an order shortening time must show emergency circumstances, unless it is solely to enable a responding party to obtain affirmative relief on a hearing date previously set by the opposing party. The moving party shall deliver his or her moving papers to the other party at the earliest reasonable opportunity in advance of the ex parte appearance, using the most expeditious means available, including, but not limited to, personal delivery or facsimile transmission.

All papers opposing a matter or order to show cause shall be filed with the court and served on each party at least nine (9) Court days prior to hearing. Unless good cause is shown, failure to comply may result in refusal by the court to consider any papers not timely filed or in the imposition of sanctions as permitted by law.
2. Counsel shall confer before the date of hearing to make a reasonable attempt to resolve disputed issues and to exchange all relevant documents. Failure to comply with this rule in good faith may result in dropping the matter from the calendar and/or the imposition of sanctions.

(Effective 1/1/95; Amended 7/1/01; Amended 7/1/06; Amended 1/1/07; Amended 7/1/09; Amended 1/1/11; Amended 7/1/11; Amended 7/1/2015) settlement judge or until the contested hearing date is confirmed by the judge. Failure to participate in good faith in the settlement conference may be a basis for the imposition of sanctions or changes in the calendar status of the action. All motions for continuances or requests to drop the matter shall be heard by the assigned judge.

Counsel shall meet and confer before the date of the contested hearing in a reasonable attempt to resolve the disputed issues and to exchange all relevant documents.

Upon application of any party, or on the court's own motion, the judge may specially set a settlement conference in any family law matter.

(See Statement of Issues, local form FCS-92.) The original of each party's statement shall be filed with the court and copies served on the opposing parties or counsel. If both parties fail to file timely a statement of issues, the mandatory settlement conference shall take place, but the matter shall be dropped from the trial calendar. Failure by one party will allow the complying party to continue or drop the hearing and may result in the imposition of sanctions against the non-complying party.

(Effective 1/1/95; Amended 1/1/96; Amended 7/1/2015; Amended 7/1/2017)

13.04 Failure to Serve

Absent a written order resetting the matter to a new date, if service is not completed by the date specified by law, in the request for order or order to show cause, the matter will be dropped from the calendar and counsel must file new papers to reset the matter.

(Effective 1/1/95; Amended 7/1/2015)

In the event both parties in good faith believe that the matter cannot be completed in fifteen (15) minutes, they shall, at the time the matter is called, so inform the court. The court may then set the matter as may be appropriate.

(Effective 1/1/95; 1/1/96; Amended 7/1/04; Amended 7/1/2015)

13.08 Child Custody/Visitation; Referral for Report

A. Process of Referral to Mediation.

1. In any contested proceeding involving issues of custody and/or visitation, the court will refer the parties to mediation upon filing a request for order where child custody and visitation are at issue.
2. Upon stipulation of the parties the court may order a return to mediation.
3. On the court's own motion in the course of regular law and motion, domestic violence restraining order, ex parte, or other court proceedings.
4. Immediate referral may be made in an emergency with imminent danger to a child involving sudden and serious physical or emotional abuse, domestic violence, sexual abuse, neglect, or substance abuse, or if there is a risk of parental flight or other emergency circumstances deemed appropriate by the court.

B. Mediation Process.

Mediation shall be for a maximum time of three (3) hours. Mediation shall be confidential. The parties must attend a Parent Orientation Program prior to the mediation. Orientation provides important information about helping children through their parents' separation and how to develop a parenting plan. The Orientation Program occurs at 8:00 a.m. on the morning of the hearing.

An initial mediation session occurs following the Orientation Program on the morning of the hearing. The mediator shall prepare and have the parties sign any agreement reached through mediation. This agreement is provided to the court and copies provided to counsel, pursuant to section 3186, subdivision (b) of the Family Code. If mediation is successful and an agreement on all issues is reached, the mediation process is completed.

If the parties are unsuccessful in reaching an agreement, the mediator will so notify the court. A full mediation will be scheduled and a review hearing date set. The mediator will provide the court with a list of unresolved issues and may recommend that an attorney be appointed for the children pursuant to Family Code section 3150 and rule 5.240 of the California Rules of Court or that the parties be referred for a child custody evaluation. The parties shall return to court and the court may make orders as may be appropriate.

The parties may stipulate to have a professional child custody evaluator make a recommendation to the court. The cost of such evaluation is the responsibility of the parties.

C. Evaluation Report and Recommendation.

The evaluation report and recommendation is not confidential and shall be considered by the court under Evidence Code section 730. The evaluator is allowed 10 hours to complete the evaluation. The evaluation shall be in accordance with Family Code section 3111. The evaluator will interview the parents and the children and will provide the court with a written report and recommendation on the issue of custody, visitation and/or a proposed parenting plan. The evaluation report and recommendation will be reviewed and considered by the court.

1. When the court refers the matter for an evaluation, it is considered a court appointment pursuant to Evidence Code section 730 and will be read and considered by the court at motion hearing or trial.
2. When the report is submitted to the court, the court may adopt, partially adopt, or reject the report. If either party contests the court's ruling that party may request an evidentiary hearing. If custody/visitation is the only issue or if the parties wish to bifurcate that issue, the court shall order the matter set for trial on a preferential trial date basis.
3. The party who wishes to have the evaluator present at the evidentiary hearing/trial must notify the evaluator at least 20 days prior to the evidentiary hearing/trial date and subpoena that person. The party who subpoenas the evaluator is responsible for paying the evaluator for the appearance and testimony at the evidentiary hearing/trial.
4. Any deposition of an evaluator shall be noticed at least 10 days prior to the deposition date or by agreement between the evaluator and the party. Further, the party seeking the deposition is responsible for any and all evaluator fees in connection with the deposition testimony.
5. The evaluator may inspect other related and relevant Court files in conjunction with the preparation of his or her report.

D. Peremptory Challenge of Mediator.

A peremptory challenge to the mediator is not permitted. However, a challenge for cause may be presented to the court within five (5) days of the appointment. The challenge for cause may be made on an ex parte basis, giving the opposing side at least twenty-four (24) hours notice.

Parties seeking to inspect such reports must petition the court for an order permitting such inspection. To the extent that the contents of such records have been disclosed in another manner, or have otherwise been made discoverable, such documents will no longer be deemed confidential.

Ex Parte communication between the mediator and either party is hereby prohibited, unless a stipulation regarding such contact is reached and approved by the Court.

F. Mediation Complaint Procedure.

The court is committed to the delivery of quality mediation services. Complaints must be in writing and directed to the Court Executive Officer, Amador Superior Court, 500 Argonaut Lane, Jackson, CA 95642. You will receive a written response within ten (10) business days of receipt of the written complaint.

In cases involving recipients of public assistance, the signature of the attorney for Central Sierra Child Support Agency must appear on the stipulation. A printout of the child support calculation shall be attached to the stipulation.

C. Temporary Child Custody.

Factors which may be considered by the judge when making a temporary order for custody include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. The child normally will be left in the home where he or she has been living on a regular basis unless there are compelling circumstances dictating otherwise, such as evidence of harm or violence to the child.
2. The closer the child is to the age of majority, the more likely the child's preference will be followed, but the choice must be in the child's best interest and is not to be motivated either by reward to the child or by the playing of one parent against the other.
3. If either parent has left the home and has taken the child without the consent of the other or without an order of the court, that parent shall state the reasons therefore.
4. If violence has taken place or seems likely, the court encourages a victim or other parent to leave the home until after a court hearing is held; the court will not penalize a parent for leaving the home.

D. Temporary Support Schedule.

1. In setting temporary spousal support, the Court applies the Santa Clara guideline support formula. However, the Court considers the facts and circumstances of each case and may deviate from the guideline support amount when appropriate.
2. If the parties stipulate to child support and the stipulated amount is below the statewide guidelines, the parties must complete a Stipulation to Establish or Modify Child Support and Order (FL-350). B. Recipients of Public Assistance Benefits.

If the custodial parent has assigned support rights to the County under Welfare and Institutions Code section 11477, the Central Sierra Child Support Agency, and a supporting non-custodial parent may stipulate, without the signature of the custodial parent, to an order modifying the method of payment of, or to facts supporting a change in the amount of child support; provided however, that reasonable notice be given to the custodial parent. Any such stipulation must conform to the requirements of Family Code section 4065.

13.15 Long Cause Contested Hearings/Trials

A. Purpose of Rules; Duties of Counsel.

State of California Superior Court
County of Amador

The purpose of this rule is to ensure the thorough and expeditious trial of contested family law matters and to avoid using the trial itself as a vehicle for what should be pretrial deposition, discovery, and settlement procedures. Unrepresented parties or counsel, vested with full authority from their clients to dispose of these matters, shall confer in good faith to review the pretrial statements required by these rules no later than one week prior to the time set for any settlement conference and/or trial in order that, to the fullest extent possible, issues can be resolved by stipulation, and those issues remaining for determination by the court can be clearly delineated.

B. Relief from Rules.

Relief from the operation of these rules relating to trials may be obtained in appropriate cases, but only on motion for good cause. The parties shall not waive the requirements of these rules by stipulation. Either side may move to strike the At Issue Memorandum, Pretrial Statement/Request for Admissions, or Reply Pretrial Statement of the other side upon the ground that the document was not prepared and filed in good faith, but not as a means to avoid the operation of these rules. Sanctions against the offending side may be requested, as permitted by law.

C. At Issue Memorandum.

The at-issue memorandum shall be filed before any contested case may be set for trial. However, this shall not apply to post-judgment motions, which may be set for long cause hearing by stipulation or court order. It shall be the responsibility of the party filing the At-Issue Memorandum to insure that a response has been filed before filing the At-Issue Memorandum. Alternatively, matters may be set for trial at a Family Law Case Management Conference. In those cases, an at-issue memorandum is not required.

E. Settlement Conferences and Meet-And-Confer Rule.

Counsel and the parties shall personally appear for a settlement conference to be scheduled at the time the trial date is determined. Counsel and the parties shall participate in good faith in the settlement conference until released by the settlement judge or until the trial date is confirmed by the settlement judge. Failure to participate in good faith in the settlement conference may be a basis for the imposition of sanctions or change in the calendar status of the action. All motions for continuances or to drop the matter shall be heard by the assigned judge.

Unrepresented parties or counsel shall meet and confer before the date of the settlement conference, or any other contested hearing, in a reasonable attempt to resolve the disputed issues and to exchange all relevant documents.

Upon application of any party, the judge may, in his/her discretion, specially set a settlement conference in any family law matter. In addition, the parties may request the matter be specially set for a settlement conference at the Family Law Case Management Conference.

State of California Superior Court
County of Amador

F. Statement of Issues, Contentions and Proposed Disposition of the Case.

Where a matter is set for contested trial, either short or long cause, both parties shall file with the Court and serve a "Statement of Issues, Contentions and Proposed Disposition of the Case" at least twenty (20) days prior to the trial date, and if there is a settlement conference, at least five (5) court days before the settlement conference. (See form FCS-92 at www.amadorcourt.org) If both parties fail to timely file a Statement of Issues the matter shall not be permitted to proceed to trial; however, a court assisted settlement conference shall remain available. Failure by one party to file a Statement pursuant to this rule will allow the complying party to continue or drop the trial date and may result in the imposition of sanctions. The imposition of sanctions pursuant to this rule shall be heard upon noticed motion.

(Effective 1/1/95; Amended 1/1/97; Amended 1/1/06; Amended 1/1/08; Amended 1/1/10; Amended 7/1/2015; Amended 7/1/2017)

(b) If the opposing party does not so approve within twenty (20) days, the preparing party shall send the order to the court with a cover letter explaining why it was submitted without such approval and a proof of service of the letter and proposed order on the opposing party. If the opposing party does not explain his/her objection with specificity in writing to the court within fifteen (15) days of the date of service by the preparing party, the court will sign the submitted order. If there is written objection with specificity, the court will then decide whether to adopt the proposed judgment or what changes shall be required, with or without a hearing, at the court's discretion.

A. Purpose and Applicability.

This rule is established to comply with section 317.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and rule 5.660 of the California rules of court. On proper application and showing, the requirements of these rules pertaining to competence of counsel can be waived or modified when necessary to provide appointed counsel in juvenile dependency cases, where the court automatically appoints counsel for children.

State of California Superior Court
County of Amador

b. General Competency Requirement.

All attorneys appointed by the court in juvenile dependency proceedings must meet minimum standards of competence as set forth in this rule.

C. Screening for Competency.

1. All attorneys who are appointed by the court to represent parties in juvenile court proceedings shall meet the minimum standards of training and/or experience set forth in this rule. Each appointed attorney of record for a party to a dependency matter pending before the Court on the effective date of these rules, who believes he or she meets the minimum standards of competency shall complete and submit to the Court, within 30 days of the effective date of these rules, a Certification of Competency. After the effective date of these rules, any appointed attorney appearing in a dependency matter for the first time shall complete and submit a Certification of Competency to the court within 10 days of his or her first appearance in a dependency matter.
2. Attorneys who meet the minimum standards of training and/or experience as set forth in this rule, as demonstrated by the information contained in the Certification of Competency submitted to the Court, shall be deemed competent to be appointed by the Juvenile Court in dependency cases, unless a Judge of the juvenile court determines a particular appointed counsel does not meet minimum competency standards.
3. If certified counsel fails to submit evidence that he or she has completed at least the minimum required training and education to the court by the due date or the Court determines counsel does not meet the competency requirements, the Court shall notify counsel that he or she will be decertified. The attorney shall have thirty (30) days from the date of mailing the notice of decertification to submit evidence of competency. If the attorney fails to complete such training, the Court shall order, except in cases where a party is represented by retained counsel, that certified counsel be substituted for the attorney who fails to complete the required training.
4. In order to retain his or her certification of competency, counsel shall file a declaration certifying that counsel has completed at least eight (8) hours of continuing education related to dependency proceedings within the last three (3) years. The declaration must be filed on or before January 15 of each year.

D. Minimum Standards of Education and Training.

2. In the case of court-appointed attorneys new to the field of representation of parties to dependency proceedings, the local County Bar Association shall establish a mentor program to provide "mentor attorneys," who are experienced in the field of dependency representation, and who meet the competency requirements set forth in this rule, to advise and, as necessary, assist such new counsel in the field of dependency representation. Such mentor attorneys may attend dependency court proceedings and provide such other assistance, in and out of court, to the new attorney in order to assist in providing competent representation to parties in dependency cases.

It is important for the child to meet with the attorney outside of the courthouse setting. The attorney should make an independent assessment of how the child is being cared for on a day-to-day basis. If the attorney receives any information that the child is at risk in his/her placement, the attorney shall take the appropriate action.

F. Procedures for Reviewing and Resolving Complaints.

1. Any party to a juvenile court proceeding may lodge a written complaint with the Court concerning the performance of his or her appointed attorney in a Juvenile Court proceeding.

If the court implements a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) program, a CASA volunteer may be appointed as Guardian Ad Litem.

C. Appointment of Guardian Ad Litem in Cases initiated under the Penal Code.

14.03 Court-Appointed Special Advocate (CASA).

A. Program.

A referral to the Child Advocates Office may be made by the Judicial Officer, or any party to the case at any point in delinquency and dependency proceedings, or upon request of the CASA program. Upon acceptance of the case by the Child Advocates Office, the Court will be asked to sign an Order Appointing a CASA. Where the referral is not made by the court at an appearance hearing, the Child Advocates Office will notice all parties of the CASA program's intent to request appointment and the name of the specific CASA volunteer to be assigned to the case.

B. Referral Criteria.

The court should consider referring a dependency or delinquency case to CASA when it involves the following:

1. Severe physical sexual abuse cases where the child is not released to a parent or relative, and the child is seriously traumatized;
2. Special needs cases (e.g., education developmental, medical, mental health needs) that involve conflicting opinions as to assessment and/or treatment for child, or where treatment plans or resources will be difficult to arrange;
3. Cases of re-abuse that involve a number of issues or a number of interested parties;
4. Children 10 years and under who have experienced multiple placements and whose parents have consistently failed to show progress toward or interest in fulfilling treatment plans or goals for family reunification;
5. Children age 0-8 years old in foster care, where CASA might expedite the case toward family reunification or adoption, if reunification is not appropriate; and
6. Short-term CASA intervention/involvement is required in case resolution or clarification of issues by gathering or researching information: e.g., contacting out-of-state relatives or investigating medical concerns to assist the court in reaching a decision.

In delinquency cases, the court may make CASA referrals when it deems it to be appropriate.

State of California Superior Court
County of Amador

C. Requests for Referrals

Any party, attorney representing a party or child, the welfare worker, or other person having an interest in the welfare of the child can request the Court make a referral to CASA. A request for CASA Referral must be submitted in writing to the Court for each child referred. The person requesting such a referral must give two (2) working days telephone notice to the child welfare worker, attorneys of record for the parents/guardians, and attorney for the child. If the child welfare worker is making the referral, the Court Officer will provide notice. Unless the attorney of record or the child welfare worker objects to the referral, the court will send the referral to CASA for evaluation.

Any objections to the referral must be in a brief written statement as to why the referral is not appropriate, without discussing the subject matter of the litigation. The basis for an objection will not be treated as confidential. After receipt of the objection, the Court will review the case and make an independent decision as to whether a referral to CASA is appropriate.

D. Status of CASA Volunteers.

1. The Court-Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) is appointed as a sworn officer of the court, serves at the pleasure of the court, and is bound by all court rules under the authority of Welfare and Institutions Code section 102, subdivision (c). The advocate has the right to be present in person at all hearings, and to sit at counsel table with the child. An advocate may not be excluded from any proceeding by virtue of the fact that he or she might be called upon to give testimony in the case at some later date.
3. Under rule 5.655(g)(1)(E) of the California Rules of Court, CASA programs must have access to an attorney, whether retained or pro bono, to provide advice and direction on legal issues. Pro bono attorneys retained in such a capacity have the right to be heard in any proceedings and may examine the child and other witness, as necessary.
4. CASA volunteer's personnel file is confidential under rule 5.655. No one shall have access to the file or any of its contents, except the volunteer, the CASA Program Director, and the Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court. A volunteer's personnel records, however, are subject to the court's subpoena power. All subpoenas are to be served in the CASA office.
5. A CASA advocate is a mandated child abuse reporter with respect to the case to which he or she has been assigned (Penal Code section 11164, et seq.).

State of California Superior Court
County of Amador

E. Court Reports.

In any case in which the court has ordered the appointment of an advocate, such advocate shall file reports regarding their findings and recommendations for the child with the court at least two (2) court days before each formal six month review hearing; reports for other hearings/reviews are encouraged when significant, new information is available. Copies of the report are to be provided by CASA to all parties or their counsel at least two (2) court days before the scheduled hearing, pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 5.655(k)(5).

In the event the defendant is found not guilty or if the charges are otherwise dismissed, the amount of the bail posted shall be promptly refunded to the defendant.

In the event the defendant is dissatisfied with a decision of the court in a proceeding pursuant to this rule, the defendant shall, within ten (10) days of the mailing of the clerk's notice of the court's decision, notify the clerk in writing, of a request for a trial de novo; in which case the court shall then set a regular trial requiring the appearance of all parties to be heard in open court.

(Effective 1/1/95; Amended 7/1/98; Renumbered Effective 1/1/06; Amended 7/1/2015)

15.02 Continuances

Prior to the date upon which the defendant promised to appear and without depositing bail, the defendant may request a continuance of the written promise to appear. Similarly, a traffic officer may request a continuance of the matter based upon his or her unavailability. All requests for continuances must be submitted at least ten (10) court days prior to the date of the hearing.

CHAPTER 16—DOMESTIC VIOLENCE COORDINATION RULES

This chapter sets forth the communication protocol for Domestic Violence and Child Custody Orders, as mandated by California Rules of Court, rule 5.445.

The Court's criminal, family, and juvenile law departments shall communicate and exchange information with each other prior to issuing protective orders and child custody and visitation orders to determine if such orders have already been issued as to the same parties and/or children in any other department.

(Effective 7/1/08; Amended 7/1/2015)

16.02 Avoiding Conflicting Orders

No department of the family or juvenile court shall issue a protective order or custody order in conflict with an order of the criminal court. In the event conflicting orders are issued inadvertently, the order of the criminal court controls.

(Effective 7/1/08)

16.03 Modification of Criminal Orders

A court issuing a criminal court protective order may, after consultation with the appropriate department of the family and/or juvenile court, modify the criminal court protective order to allow or to restrict contact between the restrained person and his or her children, spouse, or other protected person.

State of California Superior Court

16.04 Coexisting Criminal and Family or Juvenile Orders

A family or juvenile court order may coexist with a criminal court protective order, subject to the following conditions:

- A. Any order permitting contact between the restrained person and his or her children shall provide for the safe exchange of the children.
- B. Any order permitting contact between the restrained person and his or her children shall not contain language, either printed or handwritten, that violates a “no contact order” issued by the criminal court.
- C. Safety of all parties shall be the court’s paramount concern. The family and/or juvenile court order shall specify the date, time, place, and manner of transfer of the child, as provided in Family Code section 3100.

Bills will be sent to conservators and guardians or parents, and copies will be set to their attorneys. Upon receipt of the bill, payment must be remitted to the Court within thirty (30) days, unless a proper objection to the same is received.

Both the Handbook and video "With Heart: Understanding Conservatorship" are available on the court's website – Probate Division – at www.amadorcourt.org/dv-probate.aspx.

After watching the video, prospective conservators must complete the online verification form and submit it to the court prior to the hearing on the conservator petition.
